

THE SECOND GENERATION (1820-1835)

1. CONDITIONS FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE SECOND GENERATION

- the defeat of Napoleon, the end of Napoleonic Wars
- the victory of Russia over Napoleon
- the authority of Russia was strengthened
- the idea of Slavism
- the cooperation with the Czech national movement
- 1820 and 1830s Revolutions
- magyarisation
- confessional split
- no organisation
- no cultural centre
- no leading personalities

2. THE AIM

- to protect the national emancipation of the Slovak nation
- to solve the language split
- to improve cooperation of both sides – Catholics and Evangelicals

3. THE MAIN REPRESENTATIVES

CATHOLICS

JÁN HOLLÝ

MARTIN HAMULJAL

JURAJ PALKOVIČ

EVANGELICALS

PAVOL JOZEF ŠAFÁRIK

JÁN KOLLÁR

4. EFFORTS TO ACHIEVE UNIFICATION OF THE CONFESSIONALLY DEFINED GROUPS BY MEANS OF COOPERATION ON PUBLISHING PROJECTS ALSO APPEARED MORE SIGNIFICANTLY

THE RESULTS:

SLOVAK READERS' SOCIETY

ESTABLISHED IN

REPRESENTATIVES

TASKS

MAGAZINE

SOCIETY OF LOVERS OF THE SLOVAK LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

ESTABLISHED IN

REPRESENTATIVES

TASKS

MAGAZINE

5. CONCLUSION

- two centres of the Slovak National Movement
- better co-operation of both confessional groups
- no connection with people
- not dealing with economic and social questions
- no leading personality
- language split