Theories to understand: Trotskyism, Stalinism, Leninism

Trotskyism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The idea of ..... revolution. Revolution to be spread to other countries</li> <li>• The idea of permanent revolution</li> <li>• Fast economic modernization</li> <li>• Critic of the domination of bureaucratic caste over the populace</li> </ul>
Stalinism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Theory of the Communism in ..... country. This theory became Party policy in 1925</li> </ul>
Leninism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Lenin believed that only revolutions in economically advanced countries could achieve Communism.</li> <li>• Political revolution led by a ..... party of professional revolutionaries</li> </ul>

By 1924 = Lenin's death:

- By 1924 Trotsky believed that the NEP was successful and should be ended. He believed it was now necessary to begin and industrialization program and to start large collective farms. Trotsky believed in the importance of world revolution.

X

- Stalin countered Trotsky's theory of with his own view of Socialism in One Country. This said that Russia could become Socialist on its own, provided Lenin's NEP was followed.

After 1924:

2.	Stalin	Vs.	United Opposition = Left-wingers = Leftists
3.	Stalin	Vs.	Bukharin and the Right

1. Triumvirate Vs. Left Opposition:

- Grigorij Zinoviev, Leon Kamenev and Joseph Stalin joined together in what became known as the „Triumvirate“, .....
- Trotsky and his supporters were known as the Left Opposition.
- The Triumvirs began to remove Trotsky’s supporters from influential positions (Stalin became General Secretary of the Communist Party in 1922. This gave him the power to control membership and appointments = Stalin was in control of the Party organization). Trotsky was increasingly outvoted and isolated. In 1925, he was forced to resign from his powerful position as Commissar for War.

- By using his control of Party Congresses and elections, Stalin was able to outvote his ex-partners.
- By December 1927, Trotsky, Zinoviev, Kamenev and other left-wing Communists lost important positions and were expelled from the party.

Stalin X Nikolai Bukharin and the Right:

- Stalin earlier favored the policy of the NEP. But in 1925, he seems to have started to favor an industrialization program. By the end of 1927, the United opposition was defeated. and Stalin announced that Soviet agriculture and industry needed to be modernized. He decided to adopt Trotsky’s earlier suggestions for a program of .....
