

Expressing Similarity and Difference

Similarity

One similarity between letters and emails is that they are both forms of written communication.

Like letters, emails are a form of written communication.

Letters and emails are similar in that you can write formally or informally.

Another similarity between is that.....

The final similarity between is that

Difference

One difference between letters and emails is that letters can take several days to arrive while/whereas emails are very fast.

Unlike letters, emails are very fast.

Letters can take several days to arrive. On the other hand,/In contrast, emails are very fast.

Another difference between..... is that while/whereas.....

The final difference between

Task

Use the phrases above to express similarities and differences between the telephone and Skype. Write three phrases expressing similarities (or the same similarity three times) and three expressing differences.